Olowoyeye OA, Tijani KH.

Migrated IUCD resulting in increased urinary frequency.

ABSTRACT

Missing Intrauterine contraceptive devices can migrate to various regions intra-abdominally. Plain radiography usually confirms that the devise is still within the abdominal cavity, while other specific studies may define its relationship with the organ imaged. This is a case of a Migrated IUCD resulting in urinary symptoms.